3.0 Respect the Chain of Command

3.1 Members of Council must understand they have no individual capacity to direct Staff to perform, or not perform functions or duties. The CAO is responsible for Staff and Officers - Members of Council who need to engage with Staff and Officers must do so through the CAO. This would include both in person, verbal, written and electronic messages.

3.2 Section 3.1 above is not meant to dissuade Council Members from contacting staff with simple one-time questions or to provide information. Such communication is encouraged.

4.0 Make Good Use of Staff Time

Members of Council should use the resources of Staff and Officers judiciously. Reports and deferrals cost taxpayer money and take Staff and Officer time away from other issues or problems that may need attention.
